Executive Summary:

The purpose of this Policy is to ensure that a consistent and compliant recruitment and selection process is adopted by the Anglican Schools Commission (ASC) and its schools. The Policy ensures that the NSW Education Standards Authority (NESA), Royal Commission into Institutional Response to Child Sexual Abuse – Recommendations and Screening (Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Checks (NCCHC) and Working with Children Check (WWC Check)) obligations are met.

Key Actions:

- An individual personnel file must be established for all staff.
- All staff, including volunteers, contractors, must be appropriately screened – teacher registration, reference check, WWC Check, NCCHC etc.
- Schools must monitor expiry dates of teacher registrations (NESA), WWC Check, NCCHC.
- Schools must ensure compliance with current directions relating to vaccination requirements e.g., COVID-19.
- Schools must validate WWC Checks provided and register their interest to ensure they are notified of a Negative Notice.
- Records must be retained in electronic or hard copy.

NB: The list above is not exhaustive, and the policy should be read in full to understand all obligations.

1 Purpose

- 1.1 The purpose of this policy is to provide effective and robust procedures to ensure the Anglican Schools Commission (ASC) and its Schools adopt appropriate recruitment and selection methods.

2. Application

- 2.1 This policy applies to all employees of the ASC and its school (School) in New South Wales.
- 2.2 This policy details requirements in relation to recruitment and selection, compliance with the NSW Education Standards Authority (NES) and the Royal Commission into Institutional Response to Child Sexual Abuse – Recommendations. The policy also details screening requirements such as Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Checks (NCCHC) and Working with Children Checks (WWC Check).

3 Principles

- 3.1 The appointment process must ensure applicants are fully aware of the requisite commitment to the objectives and ethos of an Anglican Education.
- 3.2 Child safety and protection is a fundamental responsibility for everyone in the Anglican school community.
- 3.3 Recruitment and selection procedures shall reflect equal opportunity and gender equity principles (Appendix 1).
- 3.4 The Appointment process must comply with strict screening procedures e.g., WWC Check, NCCHC.
- 3.5 The appointment process must comply with vaccination requirements e.g., COVID-19.
- 3.6 The appointment processes must comply with the ASC Privacy Policy and Procedures.
- 3.7 A contract of employment, in the approved format, is formed by the written offer and written acceptance of the position.
- 3.8 Chaplains licensed by the Diocesan Bishop, to minister to children in schools, must meet the requirements of the Safe Ministry to Children Canon 2017 adopted by the General Synod of the Anglican Church of Australia. (Appendix 2)
- 3.9 Schools must develop their own recruitment and selection process, which aligns with this Policy, and publish it on the school website.

4 Procedures

Procedures applicable to all appointments.

4.1 Job advertisements, application forms and selection criteria

The ASC/School will ensure that:

- a. a position description and selection criteria is developed for all positions prior to advertising, including specific selection criteria concerning attitudes to and application of child safety measures to which applicants must respond.
- b. job advertisements specify that:
 - Only applications demonstrating compliance with the selection criteria will be considered.
 - Applications must include a Curriculum Vitae or Resume and the names of three Referees.

- Applicants must be supportive of the objectives and ethos of an Anglican education.
 - “The [ASC/School] is a child-safe institution/school”.
- c. all ongoing positions are advertised internally and, in the media and/or online.

4.2 Recruitment and selection

The ASC/School will ensure that:

Where possible, there is diverse representation on the panel convened to undertake the selection process, including shortlisting and interviewing.

- a. A confidential appointment file for each appointment is maintained which contains the position description, selection criteria, a summary of applications received for the position, short listed applicants, interview questions and detailed referee checks for the preferred/appointed applicant.
- b. The interview is structured:
 - in a manner which ensures they have been assessed thoroughly and fairly for the position.
 - the applicants are provided with clear information about the ASC’s/Schools commitment to child safety.
 - the applicant’s values, motives and attitudes are assessed, particularly where working directly with children.
 - to ascertain why the applicant is leaving their current job;
 - to assess the applicant’s professional experience, qualifications and competence, to work with children (if applicable).
- c. Unsuccessful applicants are informed of the outcome as soon as practicable.
- d. The Chief Executive Officer (CEO)/Principal, and any member of the panel, must disclose to the Chair of the Board/School Council any conflict of interest regarding a prospective appointment e.g., member of family, friend and excuse themselves from the panel, unless approved by the Chair of the Board/School Council.

NB: this applies to new appointments and internal promotions (including appointments from other ASC schools).

4.3 Screening and references

The ASC/School will ensure that:

- a. Where possible, applicant screening should take place before an offer of employment is made to the preferred applicant. An offer of employment made to an applicant where screening has not been completed is subject to the successful completion of all screening processes.
- b. All applicants must provide identification and other documentation to confirm their qualifications and experience as required by the ASC/School.
- c. All teachers must be registered with NESA.
- d. Referee checking:
 - The ASC/School must contact at least two referees and where possible involve direct conversations.

- The ASC/School must ensure that thorough referee checking is undertaken and that, at a minimum, the applicant's current employer and most recent previous employer are contacted e.g. the Principal.
NB: members of the panel cannot act as a referee e.g., new appointment, existing staff, member of family or friend are applying for a position or internal promotion (including appointments from another ASC schools).
- Where there is no previous employer, a relevant character referee for the applicant may be contacted prior to an offer of employment being made, e.g., the Principal of final practice school.
- The ASC/School must enquire whether the applicant has ever had an adverse finding of an employment-related complaint against them.

4.4 Employee Screening

The ASC/School will ensure that:

a. Governing Body - ASC Board/School Council

- Members of governing bodies must be fit and proper persons for carrying out their responsibilities. Refer to 'Annual Declarations' in the ASC Board Governance Manual/ASC School Council Governance Manual (as applicable).
- Members of the ASC Board/School Council must:
 - i. advise the ASC/School if their situation changes which would impact on their ability to be deemed fit and proper;
 - ii. provide a copy of a NCCHC (renew every three (3) years); and
 - iii. provide a copy of a WWC Check (Chair of the Board/School Council/CEO/Chief Operating Officer Only) NB: renew every five (5) years.
- Refer to Appendix 1 for Employee Screening Matrix – WWCC and NCCHC.

b. Teaching Staff

- All prospective employees at ASC schools are required to furnish the Principal with a copy of their NESA Registration and WWC Check.
NB: NCCHC included in the NESA registration process).
- The prospective employee will pay any costs associated with this process.
- The CEO/Principal may, at their sole discretion, require a current employee (as at the date of this policy) to obtain a NCCHC.
- Refer to Appendix 1 for Employee Screening Matrix – WWCC and NCCHC.

c. Non-teaching staff (including University Students, and non-teaching Chaplains)

- All prospective employees at ASC schools are required to furnish the Principal with a copy of a WWC Check and a NCCHC. The NCCHC must have been issued no longer than 8 weeks prior to first commencing duties at the school.
- The prospective employee will pay any costs associated with this process.
- This policy applies to all non-teaching staff, including full-time, part-time, relief and casual staff. It includes co-curricular areas, as well as university students undertaking training and non-teaching Chaplains to the school.
- All prospective employees at the System Office are required to furnish the CEO with a copy of:
 - WWC Check (Directors, Internal Auditor and Communications team).
 - NCCHC (All System Office staff).

- A NCCHC must be renewed every three (3) years and staff must advise the ASC/school if their situation changed which would impact on their suitability to continue to work. The employee will pay the costs associated with this process.
 - The CEO/Principal may, at their sole discretion, require a current employee (as at the date of this policy) to obtain a NCCHC.
 - Refer to Appendix 1 for Employee Screening Matrix – WWCC and NCCHC.
- d. Chaplains (teaching, non-teaching)
- In addition to the employee screening requirements (4.4 a-c), the school must seek confirmation that Chaplains licensed by the Diocese to minister in schools meet the requirements of the Safe Ministry Policy Statement.
- e. Peripatetic Staff (e.g., Music Tutors)
- All Peripatetic Tutors are required to undergo a WWC Check and/or possess a current WWC Check "Assessment Notice" and a valid NCCHC.
- NB: All Peripatetic Music Tutors, who hold a valid NESA registration are not required to obtain a NCCHC (included in the NESA registration process).
- f. Contractors
- Contractors coming into the school who will not have any direct contact with students are not required to hold a WWC Check, however, they must have a valid NCCHC.
- g. Parent and Other Volunteers
- Voluntary assistance provided by parents and others is an important component in building up the community of an Anglican school. These people assist in the day-to-day operations of a school in a significant way. The Principal is responsible to take all steps necessary to ensure that an appropriate duty of care is exercised by volunteers.
- The following situations are examples where a WWC Check would be required.
 - i. Where a volunteer is in direct contact with school-aged children (whether early childhood, primary or secondary).
 - ii. Where a volunteer will be involved in a co-curricular activity involving an overnight responsibility.
 - The following situations are example of where a WWC Check is not required.
 - i. Parents volunteering in certain activities where their child is also involved or participates (unless attending an overnight activity).
 - ii. If the volunteer is closely related to the child e.g., spouse or de facto partner, a child, stepchild, sibling, step-sibling, parent, step-parent, grandparent, step-grandparent, aunt, uncle, niece or nephew.
 - Where parents and volunteers work with students in a school, the following guidelines apply:
 - i. Volunteers must receive explicit instructions regarding the task to be undertaken with students, with appropriate training as required.
 - ii. Volunteers must be placed under the supervision of a teacher, teacher assistant or other appropriate staff member.
 - iii. Volunteers will, where possible, work in areas where they may be observed by a teacher, teacher assistant or other appropriate staff member of the school at all times. Wherever possible volunteers must work with two or more students.

- iv. Volunteers must not assist individual school-aged children (whether early childhood, primary or secondary) in closed spaces such as toilets, withdrawal rooms or storerooms, unless under the supervision of a teacher, teacher assistant or other appropriate staff member of the school at all times.
- v. Volunteers must comply with the relevant School Code of Conduct.

h. Other Personnel

Those paid by the School to perform roles with/for students under the age of 18 years are required to undergo a WWC Check, and/or possess a current WWC Check "Assessment Notice" e.g.:

- a sports coach,
- a provider of accommodation for the care of children,
- a supervisor or attendee at overnight camps,
- transport service provider.

4.5 Records Management

4.5.1 The ASC/School must ensure that documentation containing personal information about unsuccessful applicants, such as application forms, resumes, is retained for no longer than twelve (12) months.

4.5.2 The ASC/School must destroy all documentation e.g., paper and electronic form.

4.6 Roles and Responsibilities

WWC Checks

4.6.1 Prior to commencing employment, the ASC/School must ensure all employees, volunteers and students who engage in child-related work have a valid WWC Check.

4.6.2 The ASC/School must keep adequate records (staff register), namely:

- Full name;
- Date of birth;
- WWC Check number (or application number) - confirm that employees, volunteers and students who engage in child-related work have a valid WWC Card or have applied for one; ensure those who do not have a valid WWC Card and have not applied for one, do not engage in child-related work;
- Expiry date - confirm that employees, volunteers and students who continue their child-related work renew their WWC Cards one to three months before their current WWC Check expires;
- Date and outcome of online verification;
- Paid or Volunteer.

4.6.3 The ASC/School must ensure that a person is not employed in child-related work if notice is received that the person has withdrawn their application or has been issued with an Interim Negative Notice or Negative Notice;

NB: If an Interim Negative Notice is issued, the preliminary assessment of a criminal record or professional has indicated that the employee will not pass the WWC Check.

After an Interim Negative Notice has been issued, the application cannot be withdrawn from the assessment process until a final decision is made.

A Negative Notice will be issued if the assessment or re-assessment of the applicant's eligibility to hold a WWC Card indicates an unacceptable risk to children.

4.6.4 If a WWC Check is provided which was obtained when working for a previous employer, the ASC/School must verify its validity.

To verify a WWC Check status online.

- <https://www.kidsguardian.nsw.gov.au/check>
- Select Start here.
- Log in as an Employer.
- Select Verify Working with Children status.
- Enter employees Surname / date of birth / Working with Children Check number (or application number).
- Click Verify.

This also ensure that ASC/School are informed of a Negative Notice.

NCCHC

4.6.5 The ASC/School must confirm that a valid NCCHC has been obtained (where applicable).

4.6.6 These records may be electronic or in hard copy format but must be made available if required for audit and monitoring purposes.

Vaccinations

4.6.7 The ASC/School must validate and record proof of vaccination in accordance with current directions.

4.7 Offer of Employment

4.7.1 The CEO/Principal will undertake a discussion with the preferred applicant to confirm the conditions of the position being offered to ensure that the applicant is a suitable candidate for the role.

4.7.2 The Principal will ensure that the Letter of Offer for the preferred applicant contains all relevant information in relation to the position being offered and includes:

- The conditions of their continued employment; and
- Documents pertaining to their conditions of appointment and where they can be obtained.

4.7.3 The ASC/School will establish the employee's personnel file, with details of the position, advertisement, application, evidence of reference checks, interview questions, proof of qualifications, current NCCHC, WWC Check, accreditation requirement and status, letter of acceptance and relevant correspondence.

4.7.4 A short-term position is to replace a staff member for a period of no longer than two (2) years duration.

4.8 Contractors

4.8.1 As part of any new or renewed contract, regular contractors/sub-contractors will be required to undertake a NCCHC on all of their employees where they intend to use them on a school site. The cost of the clearance will be borne by the contractor.

4.8.2 Contractors engaged to work with children are required to have a current WWC Check.
