1. Purpose

The Anglican Schools Commission (ASC) is committed to child safety and has developed this Policy to assist Principals, teachers and other school staff to deal appropriately with the issue of child protection, and by doing so is supporting a consistent approach by all ASC schools to this important issue.

2. Scope

This Policy applies to the ASC and its schools in Western Australia (WA) including boarding facilities where applicable. This includes Board members, School Council members, all staff, practicum students, volunteers, contractors, ministers of religion and boarding staff, if relevant.

3. Principles

The ASC acknowledges the serious consequences of child abuse and neglect, both in the short term and the long term. Within its schools, the protection strategies and procedures to be followed are based on the following principles and values:

- 3.1 The ASC Core Values of Faith, Excellence, Justice, Respect, Integrity and Diversity underpin the development of its Child Safe Policy (WA).
- 3.2 The ASC is committed to complying with The Child Safe Standards per the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse recommendations, (Appendix 1) and implementing the National Child Safe Organisation Principles (Appendix 2).
- 3.3 All adults have a responsibility to care for children, to positively promote their welfare and to protect them from any kind of abuse.
- 3.4 All children have the right to a thorough and systematic education about personal safety, including safety in relationships.
- 3.5 The ASC and its schools are committed to child safety and zero tolerance of child abuse.
- 3.6 The ASC is committed to preventing child abuse and identifying risks early; and removing and reducing these risks.
- 3.7 The ASC and its schools are committed to fulfilling our legal responsibilities in the area of child abuse.

- 3.12 The ASC promotes the cultural safety of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children at all schools.

- 3.17 The Principal is responsible for all aspects of school management including the management of suspected or disclosed incidents of child abuse, in line with legislation and Department of Communities - Child Protection and Family Support (CPFS) and WA Police requirements. With the assistance of the appropriate Pastoral Care Staff (such as the School Chaplain, Pastoral Dean, Psychologist, Nurse or Counsellor), the Principal must ensure that the school's pastoral care structures address the issue of child abuse, and make appropriate provisions for the assistance of affected children, families and staff.
- 3.18 All school staff have a duty of care to students during school hours and at other times when staff/student relationships exist.

5. Definitions

5.1. Advocacy and Support Services are those which act alongside, or on behalf of, victims and survivors of child abuse to support their rights and interests while providing tangible and practical support.

5.2. Child Abuse – Four forms of child abuse are covered by WA law:

1. Physical abuse occurs when a child is severely and/or persistently hurt or injured by an adult or a child's caregiver. It may also be the result of putting a child at risk of being injured.
2. Sexual abuse occurs when a child is exposed to, or involved in sexual activity that is inappropriate to the child's age and developmental level, and includes sexual behaviour in circumstances where:
 - a. The child is the subject of bribery, coercion, a threat, exploitation or violence;
 - b. The child has less power than another person involved in the behaviour; or
 - c. There is significant disparity in the developmental function or maturity of the child and another person involved in the behaviour.
3. Emotional abuse includes:
 - a. Psychological abuse; and
 - b. Being exposed to an act of family and domestic violence.
4. Neglect is when children do not receive adequate food or shelter, medical treatment, supervision, care or nurturance to such an extent that their development is damaged, or they are injured. Neglect may be acute, episodic or chronic.

5.3. Code of Conduct promotes positive work practices and establishes expectations for personal and professional boundaries concerning appropriate and inappropriate behaviour in relation to staff, students, volunteers, parents and guardians. It provides guidance about behaviour, relationships, attitudes and responsibilities and outlines the process that will be followed if the code is not observed.

5.4. Culturally-appropriate is the definition adopted by the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse:

an approach to policy, intervention, service delivery and inter-group interaction that is based on the positive acceptance of the cultural values and expectations of an individual and their community [Final Report, Volume 1, page 321].

A culturally-appropriate protective behaviours and sexual abuse prevention education will reflect cultural values to enable students to engage effectively with the information, attitudes and practices being learned without offending cultural norms and expectations.

5.5 Corporal punishment is any punishment in which physical force is used and intended to cause some degree of pain or discomfort, however light; typically involving hitting the child with the hand or with an implement; can also include, for example, forcing the child to stay in an uncomfortable position. It does not include the use of reasonable physical restraint to protect the child or others from harm [UN Committee on the Rights of the Child, General Comment No. 8 (2006)].

- 5.6 Degrading punishment is any punishment which is incompatible with respect for human dignity, including corporal punishment and non-physical punishment which belittles, humiliates, denigrates, scapegoats, threatens, scares or ridicules the child [UN Committee on the Rights of the Child, General Comment No. 8 (2006)].
- 5.7 Grooming is the use of a variety of manipulative and controlling techniques with a vulnerable subject in order to establish trust or normalise sexually harmful behaviour with the overall aim of facilitating exploitation and/or prohibiting exposure.
- 5.8 Multi-Agency Protocol for Education Options for Young People Charged with Harmful Sexual Behaviour, developed by the Department of Education for all education sectors in Western Australia, describes the process by which information about young people charged with harmful sexual behaviours is shared and managed by governing bodies and schools in accordance with sections 28A-C of the Children and Community Services Act 2004.
- 5.9 National Child Safe Organisation Principles incorporate the ten standards recommended by the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse in December 2017 but cover all forms of child abuse. They were developed by the Australian Human Rights Commission and endorsed by all members of the Council of Australian Governments (COAG) in February 2019.
- 5.10 Regular Volunteer is one who attends the school or school-related activity at regular periodic intervals during a school year or one who is frequently called upon to assist in diverse capacities. A regular volunteer is not a member of staff. Members of staff may include people who are not paid.
- 5.11 Reportable Conduct includes:
- sexual offences;
 - sexual misconduct; and
 - physical assault.

6. Child Safe Code of Conduct

- 6.1. The ASC and its schools are required to develop a Child Safe Code of Conduct for the Board, School Councils, staff, practicum students and volunteers, and boarding staff (if relevant) that:

 - Integrated into the curriculum of the school and refers to subject-matter links,
 - Communicated to parents/carers;
 - Includes e-safety education; and
 - Builds practical self-protective skills and strategies.
- 8.2. Schools should also consider appropriate education to be delivered about:
 - Standards of behaviour for students attending the school;

 - Resilience.

9. School Staff recruitment practices

- 9.1. All schools must develop recruitment practices which:
 - Are robust to help ensure the best applicants are employed with each step of process done consistently and thoroughly;
 - Engage only those who are suitable to work with students;
 - Make every attempt to assess commitment to the Child Safe Code of Conduct on the part of the applicants;
 - Include induction to the school's policies and procedures for the prevention, detection and reporting of suspected and actual grooming, and abuse and mandatory reporting obligations.

- 9.3. All applicants for jobs that involve child-related work for the school must be informed about the school's child safety practices (including the Child Safe Code of Conduct).

In accordance with any applicable legal requirement (e.g. Working with Children Check (WWC Check), Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Checks (NCCHC) or school policy, the school must make reasonable efforts to gather, verify and record the following information about a person whom it proposes to engage to perform child-related work:
 - WWC Check status, or similar check;

- Proof of personal identity and any professional or other qualifications;
- The person's history of work involving children; and
- References that address the person's suitability for the job and working with children.

Refer to the Recruitment and Selection Policy and Procedures (WA) which provides effective and robust procedures to ensure that the ASC and its schools adopt appropriate recruitment and selection methods.

10. School Staff and Volunteer Supervision Practices

10.1. All schools will ensure that new employees and volunteers are supervised regularly to ensure they understand the commitment to child safety and that everyone has a role to play in protecting children from abuse, as well as checking that their behaviour towards children is safe and appropriate (as per the Child Safe Code of Conduct). Any inappropriate behaviour will be reported through the appropriate channels, including CPFS, depending on the severity and urgency of the matter.

Records and recordkeeping - Records and recordkeeping principles

Accurate records and the exercise of good recordkeeping practices are critical to identifying, preventing and responding to child sexual abuse. Records are also important in alleviating the impact of child sexual abuse for survivors. To improve records and recordkeeping practices consideration should be given to the following Principles.

Principle 1: Creating and keeping full and accurate records relevant to child safety and wellbeing, including child sexual abuse, is in the best interests of children and should be an integral part of institutional leadership, governance and culture.

- Keep the best interests of the child uppermost in all aspects of their conduct, including recordkeeping.
- Foster a culture in which the creation and management of accurate records are integral parts of the operations and governance.

Principle 2: Full and accurate records should be created about all incidents, responses and decisions affecting child safety and wellbeing, including child sexual abuse.

- Ensure that records are created to document any identified incidents of grooming, inappropriate behaviour (including breaches of institutional codes of conduct) or child sexual abuse and all responses to such incidents.
- Records created should be clear, objective and thorough and created at, or as close as possible to, the time the incidents occurred, and clearly show the author and the date created.

Principle 3: Records relevant to child safety and wellbeing, including child sexual abuse, should be maintained appropriately.

- Records should be maintained in an indexed, logical and secure manner. Associated records should be collocated or cross-referenced to ensure that people using those records are aware of all relevant information.

Principle 4: Records relevant to child safety and wellbeing, including child sexual abuse, should only be disposed of in accordance with law or policy.

- Records relevant to child safety and wellbeing, including child sexual abuse, must only be destroyed in accordance with records disposal schedules or policies.
- Records relevant to child sexual abuse should be subject to minimum retention periods that allow for delayed disclosure of abuse by victims, and take account of limitation periods for civil actions for child sexual abuse.

Principle 5: Individuals' existing rights to access, amend or annotate records about themselves should be recognised to the fullest extent.

- Individuals should have a right to access records made about them. Full access should be given unless contrary to law. Specific, not generic, explanations should be provided in any case where a record, or part of a record, is withheld or redacted.
- Individuals should be made aware of, and assisted to assert, their existing rights to request that records containing their personal information be amended or annotated, and to seek review or appeal of decisions refusing access, amendment or annotation.
